THE 30-SECOND TEST

THE ONE-PAGE TEST
BUSINESS OR PERSONALITY?

A discount doesn't lower the client's risk. It lowers what they expect from you, and the risk stays the same size. Take the test, then use the three steps below to lower the risk instead of the price.

YOU GOT SICK ON FRIDAY NIGHT.

Saturday's event still has to happen. Answer honestly.

1	Is your protocol written down on one page?	☐ YES	☐ NO
2	Could another DJ run Saturday off that page?	☐ YES	☐ NO
3	Would the client never feel it?	☐ YES	☐ NO

ANY NO

YOU HAVE A PERSONALITY

You don't have a system yet. That can work if you're a single op, because you're the one responsible. Sell that: steps 1 and 2.

ALL THREE YES

YOU HAVE A BUSINESS

You sell a Saturday that works whether you're in the room or not. Now make that system visible: step 3.

1 ANSWER THE 3 SILENT QUESTIONS

EVERY DJ

A nervous couple is asking these about you. Under each one, write one thing you could show a stranger by Friday.

WILL HE SHOW UP?

I CAN SHOW

WILL HE KNOW WHAT HE'S DOING?

I CAN SHOW

WHO DO I CALL IF IT GOES WRONG?

I CAN SHOW

Ideas: a text from a past client · a 30-second clip · a one-page plan of their night. No discount you've ever given answers any of these.

2 WRITE YOUR 3-LINE PROMISE

SOLO DJS

Who they'll talk to
"You'll talk to me. Never an assistant."

When you'll check in
"90 days, 30 days, and the week of."

If something goes wrong
"You call me, and I pick up."

Not "I'm cheap because I'm new." It's full personal attention and a DJ with nobody else to blame. Say it out loud once. If it sounds like you, it goes at the top of your quote, not behind it.

3 MAKE YOUR SYSTEM VISIBLE

MULTI-OP DJS

Your client can't see your system, so show it to them. Check what you can prove today:

- ☐ Multiple DJs
- ☐ One protocol
- ☐ Same system, every event
- ☐ A stack of great results
